UNPUBLISHED DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On February 13, 2018, Sandra Herzig filed a petition seeking compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa – 1 through 34, alleging that the influenza vaccination caused her to suffer Guillain-Barré syndrome (GBS) and chronic inflammatory demyelinating polyneuropathy (CIDP). On December 10, 2018, the undersigned ruled, based upon respondent's concession, see Respondent's Report, filed December 6, 2018, that Ms. Herzig is entitled to compensation under the Vaccine Act for her GBS injury.

On February 12, 2019, respondent filed a Proffer on Award of Compensation, to which petitioner agrees. Based upon the record as a whole, the special master finds the proffer reasonable and that petitioner is entitled to an award of pain and suffering damages and past unreimbursable expenses as stated in the Proffer. Pursuant to the attached Proffer, the following is awarded to petitioner:

A lump sum payment of $150,150.58, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Sandra Herzig. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. §300aa-15(a).

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment in case 18-218V according to this decision and the attached proffer.²

Any questions may be directed to my law clerk, Andrew Schick, at (202) 357-6360.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

s/Christian J. Moran Christian J. Moran Special Master

² Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties can expedite entry of judgment by each party filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review by a United States Court of Federal Claims judge.

RESPONDENT'S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On February 13, 2018, Sandra Herzig ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 ("Vaccine Act" or "Act"), alleging that she suffered Guillain-Barré Syndrome ("GBS") and/or chronic inflammatory demyelinating polyneuropathy ("CIDP") as a result of an influenza ("flu") vaccine administered to her on September 20, 2016. On December 6, 2018, the Secretary of Health and Human Services ("respondent") filed a Rule 4(c) Report indicating that petitioner's GBS case is appropriate for compensation under the terms of the Act, and on December 10, 2018, the Special Master issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding petitioner entitled to compensation.

I. Items of Compensation

A. Pain and Suffering

Respondent proffers that Sandra Herzig should be awarded $150,000.00 in actual and projected pain and suffering. This amount reflects that the award for projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

B. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents Sandra Herzig's expenditure of past unreimbursable expenses as a result of her vaccine injury. Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded past unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $150.58, as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1)(B). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to Sandra Herzig should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following¹: a lump sum payment of $150,150.58, representing compensation for pain and suffering ($150,000.00), and past unreimbursable expenses ($150.58), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Sandra Herzig.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

Lump sum payable to petitioner, Sandra Herzig:

$150,150.58

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH H. HUNT Assistant Attorney General

¹ Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future lost earnings and future pain and suffering.
